Commodore Dewey, if you want anything you don't see, please ask for it.

Yesterday's news from the American ars in the far East was so good that one could almost taste it.

Latest reports confirm the crushing defeat of the Spanish armada in the Phillipines. The British Consul at Manila says the Spanish fleet was annihilated while only one American vessel was injured.

The bloviating Dons can now conten plate what the "pig-eating Yankees" would have done to them if Commodore Dewey had had a few firstclass battle ships in his fleet instead of the indifferent vessels that were in his squadron

Now that Commodore Dewey has an nihilated the Spanish fleet in the Phillipines, THE LEDGER suggests that its friends the haughty and bloviating Dons can get revenge by sending over the remainder of their Navy and tackling Grand Marshal M. "The best way to get rid of a bad law is to enforce it." - General Grant.

In these war times it's a pretty safe plan not to believe anything you hear, and not to swear by anything you read in sensational newspapers.

THE LEDGER and The Courier-Jour nal were the only Kentucky newspapers that contained an account of the bom bardment of Matanzas the morning after it occurred. If you want to head the procession you must ride in the bandwagon.

Old Time Basket Meeting—Great Gather ing and a General Rejoicing.

Sunday this Church was dedicated the worship of Almighty God, the build ing being practically a new one.

Mr. George Harding, the contractor, has won the approval of the people by his splendid work. Indeed, one stops to ask, is this Stewart's Chapel?

The people came early, and came pre pared to stay, and by the time of morning service a large congregation had assem

At half past ten the Rev. H. J. Ramey, Superintendent of Ruggies Campground, preached a most excellent sermon taking for his text the First Psalm.

Immediately after the service the people repaired to the shade of the beautiful trees, where dinner was quickly prepared, and heartily enjoyed. There was enough and some to spare.

At half past one the congregation again assembled, this time the Church being literally overflowed, and a great many un literally overflowed, and a great many and able to find seats.

This service was in charge of the Pastor, the Rev. N. G. Grizzle. He introduced the Presiding Elder of Ashland District, the Rev. J. G. Dover, who preached a strong sermon from Sec ond Peter 1, 21. The Rev. F. W. Har rop was introduced to make an address and to take up the collection
